
Bars: pooled error reductions relative to each panel's own baseline. Dots: five overlapping partitions, not independent studies.